Letter from the Chief

Hello Echockotee Lodge,

I am distinctly honored to have the opportunity to serve as your 2025 Lodge Chief. I am incredibly excited to see how our Lodge performs this year, and to be able to play a role in the success of our Lodge.

Throughout this year, I cannot wait to meet all the new Brothers that come into our Lodge. Our Ordeal candidates and Ordeal members are the heart and soul of our organization, and to all of you let me personally say, Welcome, We are so Glad You're Here. To those of you who are eligible to seal your membership in our Order through the Brotherhood, I fervently urge you to do so. It is truly an eye-opening experience, and the perfect jumping off point to become more deeply involved in our great Lodge, and to take that next step into one of our many leadership roles.

Finally, one of the things I am most eager to see is how everyone in our Lodge comes together for the betterment of our Echockotee Family. Deep down, I know that our strength comes from our collaboration and our love of this Lodge and everything it stands for and provides us all with. Together, we will confirm that Echockotee Lodge continues to be one of the best Lodges that this Nation has ever seen.

And with all that being said, ladies and gentlemen, the Echockotee World Tour is just getting started.

Yours in Brotherhood,

Holden Mendez

Lodge Chief

The Order of the Arrow

The Vision of the Order of the Arrow

To be why Scouts want to stay in Scouting.

The Purpose of the Order of the Arrow

As Scouting's National Honor Society, we forge lifelong bonds among the leaders in Scouting and:

- Recognize those who exemplify the Scout Oath and Law in their daily lives and, through that recognition, cause others to act in the same way
- Reinforce a life purpose of leadership in cheerful service to others
- Create and deliver peer-led, adult-guided, advanced leadership experiences for Scouts and Scouters that positively impact their unit, community, and ultimately our nation
- Be an integral part of Scouting America and encourage participation in all it offers through units, outdoor adventures, and national events to further the Scouting experience

The Mission of the Order of the Arrow

To achieve the mission of Scouting America through transformative fellowship that ignites limitless Scouting journeys.

The Obligation of the Order of the Arrow

I do hereby promise, on my honor as a Scout, that I will always and faithfully observe and preserve the traditions of the Order of the Arrow, Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahemui.

I will always regard the ties of brotherhood in the Order of the Arrow as lasting, and will seek to preserve a cheerful spirit, even in the midst of irksome tasks and weighty responsibilities, and will endeavor, so far as in my power lies, to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others.

The History of the Order of the Arrow

The Order of the Arrow began as a camping/ceremonies experiment in May of 1915 at the Philadelphia Council Scout Camp on Treasure Island. E. Urner Goodman, the camp director, and Carroll A. Edson, the assistant director, wanted to start a program to honor those who distinguished themselves in camping and honor.

Goodman had heard of a similar organization called the Woodcraft Indians, in which youth participated in programs directly, modeled off the activities of Native Americans, and used it to help create the beginnings of the experiment. Since the area around the camp was rich in Indian tradition, the two used the Indian lore to build the foundations of their program: the precursor to the Order of the Arrow and its abundance of legends.

To ensure the fairness of inductions, Goodman established the custom that new Order members would be elected by existing members and non-members alike. In addition, in a ceremonial tribute to the virtues of man, inducted Scouts would participate in an Ordeal designed to test their abilities. This Ordeal would challenge them both mentally and physically.

In the first year of the Order, 25 members were inducted into the society. By 1922, the Order was recognized by the Boy Scouts of America. From then on, national events/conferences for the Order were held every two years, evolving into what we now know as National Order of the Arrow Conferences (NOAC).

On January 2, 1934, at the National Council Annual Meeting, the National Council officially approved the Order of the Arrow as a BSA program. 14 years later, in May of 1948, the Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America officially integrated the Order of the Arrow into the BSA. In half a century, the 1998 Boy Scout Committee recognized the Order of the Arrow as Scouting's National Honor Society.

As of today, there have been over 1 million total inductees in the Order of the Arrow during its 100+ years of service. There are currently more than 170,000 active members in over 295 councils, living the Obligation they uphold.

The evolution of the many Order of the Arrow logos.

The Ten Inductions Principles

1. Purpose

The purpose of the induction is to encourage and inspire each candidate to develop firm individual dedication to the ideals of Brotherhood and cheerful service.

2. Eligibility

The right to earn Ordeal and Brotherhood membership is given only by the scouts of a candidate's home unit during an authorized Order of the Arrow election. Only the elected candidate can overrule their decision.

3. Candidate's Compliance

The candidate has the continuous choice of meeting the tests of the Ordeal to the best of his ability, or of withdrawing.

4. Member's Compliance

All members participating in an induction must respect and comply with the tests of the ordeal to the extent allowed by their specific responsibilities.

5. Discretion

In cases where strict application of the test and requirements of the Ordeal is not possible, the lodge may choose an alternative that will best preserve the spirit of the induction, and the quality of the candidate's experience.

6. Importance of the Individual

All actions and procedures must recognize the worth, dignity, and separate identity of each individual, and his present or potential ability to govern himself.

7. Generosity

The attitude of members towards the candidate must be one of acceptance, respect, understanding, sincerity, friendly encouragement, support, and trust.

8. Focus

Everything in the lodge-created environment must direct the candidate to the central meaning of the induction and not distract from it.

9. Symbolic Progression

No symbol or symbolic procedure should be mentioned or used unless and until it is called for in the authorized ceremonies.

10. Active Membership

Lodge policy must recognize that one who understands the obligation of the Order and is striving to fulfill it is an active member, and that his dedication in itself accomplishes a major service to the Lodge.

Brotherhood / Vigil Honor

Attaining Brotherhood Membership

After 6 months of service as an Ordeal member and fulfilling certain requirements, a member may take part in the Brotherhood ceremony, which places further emphasis on the ideals of Scouting and the Order. Completion of this ceremony signifies full membership in the Order. Requirements for Brotherhood Membership:

Memorize the signs of Arrow membership, including the Obligation, the sign of Ordeal Membership, the song, the handclasp, and the admonition

- Advance in your understanding of the Ordeal
- Serve your unit
- Plan for service in your lodge, and write a letter to the Lodge Secretary detailing your plans for future service

The Brotherhood class (held at each Spring, Summer and Fall Fellowship) addresses these requirements and prepares you for the Brotherhood ceremony.

The Vigil Honor

After two years of service as a Brotherhood member, and with the approval of the national Order of the Arrow committee, a Scout may be recognized with the Vigil Honor for outstanding service to Scouting, their lodge, and the community. This honor is bestowed by special selection and is limited to one person for every 50 members registered within the lodge each year.

The History of Echockotee Lodge

Echockotee Lodge was founded in 1941, with an initial Ordeal held at Camp Echockotee on May 9th of that year. The first Ordeal class of 36 candidates was made up of youth and adults selected by a council committee for their prior service to Scouting and the summer camp program. The initial totem of the lodge was the alligator, but in an organizational meeting that summer, the totem was changed to the left-handed handclasp, and the name of the camp was adopted as the lodge name ("Echockotee" is a Seminole word meaning "we are brothers"). For many years, the lodge was active with summer camp activities, holding meetings at the end of camp or at the Seminole Hotel in Jacksonville. Echockotee hosted the first statewide gathering of lodges, called "Area Meetings", in 1945, 1946, and 1947 (among the first of such gatherings in the country). Not until the mid-1950's did regularly scheduled lodge weekends take place away from summer camp, as Echockotee does today.

The lodge undertook a major portion of the maintenance of Camp Echockotee at fellowships and service days, and did the same when the North Florida Council developed Camp Shands as a new summer camp in 1967. Since then, the lodge has held all of its fellowship weekends at Camp Shands. Besides the work done to make Shands the facility it is today, the lodge worked hard to dominate many of the inter-lodge competitions held at the Area Conferences, building healthy rivalries and traditions that continue to this day. The development of the Dance Team started in the late 1950's, and many Dance Team members have won awards on the Area (now Section) and National level.

In the 1970's, Echockotee built on its legacy of service with additional fixtures at Camp Shands, building the obstacle course and council ring for Section Conferences hosted by the Lodge in 1978 and 1983. Other facilities at Shands that bear the stamp of Echockotee involvement are the rifle range, ecology and handicraft buildings, the dining hall, and the waterfront shelter.

The national OA committee has recognized many Echockotee Lodge members for their service with the Order's highest honor, the Distinguished Service Award (DSA). Recipients from the lodge include Kevin Holloway (1977), Jack Butler (1986), Kelly Roberts (1988), Todd Leonard (1994), Greg Hazlehurst (1996) Todd Turner (1998), David Strebler (2000), and Courtney Allen (2004). While so many things about Scouting have changed since the lodge was founded in 1941, some principles remain constant, the most salient being the dedication of Echockotee to the principles of the Order, service to Scouting, and devotion to the camps and camping programs of the North Florida Council.
